

Think Big Draw Big: Make Art Kit

Take a closer look....

- How many different stories do you see in the mural?
- Which character is your favorite? Why?

Information about the mural...

Z'otz* Collective
The Shy Agreement*, 2020
mixed media

This mural was drawn onto the gallery walls over a period of 5 days. It measures over 66 feet wide and is over 15 feet tall.

Z'otz* Collective is a group of three artists that work collaboratively to produce art work—each artist works on the same art piece, passing it back and forth to each other until they agree that it is complete. They have been working together for over fifteen years in a shared Toronto studio where they create drawings, paintings, collages, sculptures, and murals. All three artists have Latin American roots: Nahúm Flores (Honduras), Erik Jerezano (Mexico), and Ilyana Martínez (Mexico/Canada).

If you are curious about how the mural evolved or want to see details of the mural please visit Virtual Exhibitions at jnaag.ca.

Prefer to see the mural in person? Book a free timed entry ticket at www.jnaag.ca.

Terms to think about...

Mural: a large artwork applied to a wall or ceiling, especially in a public space

Mixed Media: a technique involving the use of two or more artistic media

Collaboration: a single art piece completed by multiple artists, all contributing to the same art piece.

