

UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE

These properties are part of the County's Oil Heritage Conservation District, which was established in 2010 under the Ontario Heritage Act.

Securing UNESCO designation as a World Heritage Site would provide further international exposure and attention for the outstanding universal value of this important part of our history and would further protect this site for generations to come.